

Building the Capacity for Women to Lead with Equity

Founded in 1962, Inforum is the only professional organization in Michigan – and one of a few in the country – that combines strategic connections, proven professional development programs, a respected forum for new ideas, and original research to accelerate careers for women and boost talent initiatives for companies.

Leadership programs serve a broad range of women in different stages and types of careers – from nonprofit professionals, to emerging and rising corporate leaders, tech entrepreneurs, veterans and corporate board leaders.

Inforum also conducts and publishes original research on women's leadership influence, including the Michigan Women's Leadership Index.

For more information contact
Michele Shelton
mshelton@inforummichigan.org
313.324.0236

Learning to lead with equity is a hallmark of successful leaders in the 21st century. The key to leadership and organizational success is understanding and inclusively interacting with diverse others, and designing systems that maximize diverse talent. Our Building the Capacity for Women to Lead with Equity™ program will help you develop the competencies which will give you a greater sense of self-awareness and insight into how closely your actions align with your core beliefs.

Program Features

- Innovative curriculum geared towards women with at least four years of leadership experience.
- An intensive, intimate cohort model, designed with evidence-based research and practical application.
- Results of a social justice assessment that provides a foundation for the intercultural learning.
- A diverse group of dynamic facilitators.

West Michigan
Fall 2019

Program Dates:
9/26, 10/17, 10/31,
11/14

DeVos Center

Tuition: $2,300; employees of corporate investors, $1,900