Regan Grant joined Stoneridge, Inc. as the Director of Global Strategic Marketing & Communications in January 2019. In this newly created role, she is responsible for developing and executing a globally consistent marketing, communications and brand strategy, aligned with company's product portfolio and growth plans.

Prior to joining Stoneridge, Regan spent more than eleven years at Ernst & Young (EY) focused on the automotive industry. Most recently, she was the Global Automotive & Transportation Marketing Leader, where she developed the marketing and brand strategy for the sector globally, oversaw strategic partnerships, and managed a global team.

Before EY, Regan was with BNP Media as the Associate Editor for two trade publications focused on the land surveying and off-highway industries.

Regan was a Crain's Detroit Business 40 Under 40 award winner in 2018. She is an active philanthropist in the Detroit area and sits on the Campaign Cabinet for the United Way for Southeastern Michigan. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.
