Inforum, a 501(c)(3), is the only professional organization in Michigan – and one of a few in the country – that combines strategic connections, proven professional development programs, a respected forum for new ideas, and original research to accelerate careers for women and boost talent initiatives for companies.

inGAGE™ Master Class provides a confidential peer-to-peer facilitated founders forum for emerging second-stage women entrepreneurs where class participants are able to discuss and examine sensitive leadership issues facing their companies such as operations, management and finance. Founders exchange advice with each other and learn best practices from recognized industry experts. Guest speakers share their expertise and help class participants build strategic connections throughout Michigan. Customized monthly agendas are developed to address specific issues relevant to growth, fundraising and organizational development based on class participants specific needs.

The Application Process – inGAGE™ Master Class

Applicants will be selected for the program based on the following considerations:

- A strong desire to live in an entrepreneurial mindset
- Business or technical experience that will contribute to the program and their business plan
- Practical experience that applies to their particular industry and/or business
- Availability to complete the inGAGE™ Master Class program

Please submit a completed application and resume to lwiggin@inforummichigan.org. Telephone and in-person interviews with select applicants may be conducted.

Tuition: $1,500 (Tuition is subsidized by a grant)
