

DE&I: Why Equity Matters

Workshop Date:
May 6, 2021; 1:00 – 3:30 PM

Registration deadline:
May 5, 2021

Tuition: $125; Members & employees of Inforum Corporate Investors: $100

At a time when most companies are taking steps to address issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion internally, this Virtual Workshop is for professionals seeking to learn more.

The workshop enhances participants' understanding of the difference between equity and diversity, and demonstrates the characteristics of an equitable workplace.

DE&I: Why Equity Matters is a virtual discussion-based program that tackles the following:

- How equality is not equity
- When diversity isn't enough
- What covering is, and how it affects you and your employees
- The "micros" and their damaging effects

Framework

- 2.5 hour virtual workshop
- Small and large group discussion and networking
- Research and information-based pre-work to set the tone for discussions
- Class size limited for optimum learning, discussion, and networking

Enroll here

Questions? Contact Lorrena Black, VP, Leadership Development LBlack@inforummichigan.org

About Inforum Virtual Workshops: Inforum Workshops are virtual programs with Inforum original content, featuring deep dives into specific topics. These sessions are interactive, skills-based, and seek to fill information gaps among specific groups as a means of enhancing work experiences and career trajectories.